HONOLULU BADLY BEATEN BY MAUI

THE TENNIS TOURNAMENT AT PUUNENE RESULTS IN DECISIVE VICTORY FOR THE HOME PLAYERS—ONLY ONE HONOLULU TEAM WINS A MATCH OUT OF SEVEN PLAYED—THE VISITORS GAINLY FACE SOME DISADVANTAGES.

The tennis tournament between Honolulu and Maui which took place yesterday at Puunene was a great success in spite of the fact that Honolulu received a decisive beating. It was rather hard on the local men to make the long trip, play the morning they arrived in a sweltering heat, and still make a good showing. The fact that the courts at Puunene are of grass, which the local men are not accustomed to, and that the balls were rather dead, being of the vintage of 1907, probably had something to do with the result, but for all that the Maui team put up a fine game all through and won on its merits.

The only Honolulu team to win was that composed of J. P. Cooke and John Waterhouse. They were pitted against Walsh and Lougher, one of the strongest of the Maui aggregations, and won out handily 2-6, 6-1, 6-4. Their victory came through a steady hard game in which they played all round their opponents in the last two sets. The match on which the greatest amount of interest was centered was that between W. P. Roth and Judge Ballou, representing this city, and Lindsay and Turner, of Maui. It was expected that Honolulu would win this match hands down and when the local combination took the first set by a score of 6-1, this seemed assured. In the second set, however, the extreme heat began to get in its work on Roth and he weakened perceptibly as did Ballou. The latter surprised the spectators, though, by the manner in which he stuck to his game. Occasionally there would be bursts of brilliancy, but the steady play of the Maui men won the next two sets and made the score for the three sets even.

Steele and Mead made a hard fight in their match, being up against one of the best of the Maui combinations, Savage and Searby. In the match between Dr. Langhorne and Harry Macfarlane, of Honolulu, and S. Baldwin and Mellor of Maui, the local men were only beaten by a hair. They won the first set and fought out the other two to the very finish.

One match of mixed doubles was played in the afternoon, W. P. Roth and Miss Alice Macfarlane playing against C. C. Krumhaar and Miss Woods. The latter won after a long hard set, the score standing 12-10.

The tournament was for a cup given by the Puunene Tennis Club two years ago and then won by the local team. In playing for the trophy the total games won by each team and yesterday's match turned out 111 to 82 in favor of Maui.

The totals:
Searby and Savage beat Steele and Mead, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1.

Lindsay and Turner beat Roth and Ballou, 1-6, 6-2, 6-5.

S. Baldwin and Mellor beat Macfarlane and Langhorne, 5-8, 6-3, 6-5.

Collins and Krumhaar beat Forster and Davies, 6-3, 6-2, 6-1.

Nowell and Rosecrans beat Bockus and Anderson, 5-6, 6-3, 6-5.

Cooke and Waterhouse beat Walsh and Lougher, 2-6, 6-1, 6-4.

F. F. Baldwin and Thomson beat Connors and Castle, 5-6, 6-1, 6-2.

GOOD TIME AT PUUNENE

THE BALDWIN SHOW FINEST MAUI HOSPITALITY TO HONOLULU PLEASURE SEEKERS.

Maui hospitality, which has long been recognized in this Territory as that which the most perfect hosts accord their guests, has been well exemplified at Puunene for the last two or three days. The tennis and polo players of Honolulu, as well as many personal friends of the Baldwin family, have been the guests of Puunene and have received every courtesy which could be imagined. The largest party left on the Mauna Kea on Tuesday afternoon and arrived at McGregor's landing at about ten o'clock the same night. They were met by Frank F. Baldwin in charge of a large number of automobiles which took the party safely and without special incident to Wailuku.

Here a stop was made for a few minutes and the lists of guests were examined. Then the various plans were laid out. Some were to go to the senior Baldwin's home at Spreckelsville, others to the homes of the various officials of the Puunene plantation, while the majority of the backsliders were sent to the club house at Puunene. Then the autos were started once more and Puunene quickly reached. After light refreshments had been served and the guests had been serenaded by a quintet club all retired for the night to get a little sleep before the hard work of the next day's pleasures.

On Wednesday tennis was the order of the day. The Honolulu players mostly came up on the Mikahala which had been specially chartered for the trip, and reached Puunene on a special train at about 7 a. m. All had breakfast at the Puunene club and then started their games, first spending some time trying out the courts for practice. The tournament commenced at 10 o'clock and the grandstand was crowded with ladies from all over Maui. The matches were all over early in the afternoon and the visitors as a rule then rested till dinner time.

After dinner, the "Harvest Home" dance, an annual event given by H. P. Baldwin on the closing of the sugar season, was started. Music was furnished by Ernest Kaul's quintet club, which had arrived by the Makihala, and had printed his "soul songs." He admits the verses were clever.

The aunt of the future great statesman read them diligently.
"Will," she asked simply, "do they print those things for nothing if you send them in?"

LONG VOYAGE OF SUBMARINES

LONDON, July 25.—Eight British submarines from Harwich reached Granton, on the Firth of Forth, after covering without a stop a distance of 420 miles in thirty-nine hours, or at the rate of nearly eleven knots.

This performance is regarded by the officers as highly satisfactory, since the voyage from start to finish was accomplished without any incident whatever to cause the smallest concern. A slight swell was experienced on occasions, but the submarines ran easily on the surface. No attempt was made to achieve a record in the way of fast running. Had this been desired the voyage could have been made in even better time.

Nine submarines from Dover, which left at the same time as the Harwich flotilla, have also arrived at Granton. They had to cover a longer distance—500 miles—and they did not run at quite so fast a pace, being content with a steady ten knots.

STOCKS TODAY

Two blocks of Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Co. stock of 250 shares each were reported as sold at $37.50 on the stock exchange today. This is a drop of $2.50 from Monday's quotation at par. It was natural to expect a decline after the payment of the special dividend of $2.50 on the 10th.

Wailuku is strong at $91, sixty shares having been sold at that figure. Ewa is at $27.75 sales, which is considered normal. Olaa is forging upward, sales of 100 shares at $4 being recorded and an advance of one-eighth asked.

EXTRAORDINARY ATTRACTIONS AT THE ART THEATRE

The finest program ever offered in Honolulu will be given at the Art Theatre this evening. Among the firms will be the following: Visit to Zoological Gardens in London, Cohen's fire sale, Seeing the Alps Through a Telescope, Cabby's family, Asking His Way, and the Life of a Hootblack (a melodrama). The illustrated songs will include "When We Were Boys," "In the Wild Woods Where the Blue Bells Grew." An evening of perfect pleasure and dancing continued till a late hour. The majority of the Honolulu people stayed over for the polo games and a trip up Haleakala, but those whom business called back left the dance at 11 o'clock, being taken to Kahului in a special train. The Claudine had been held over till 11:30 for their benefit and Purser Kibling had prepared a fine cold lunch for them to eat when they came on board. The trip down was a very pleasant one, the steamer reaching this city at 9:30 this morning.

There is something about the atmosphere of Haleiwa that builds up the system quicker than any tonic one may take. Maybe it's the food and the atmosphere combined; they're both pure and there is plenty of each. The rooms at Haleiwa are mosquito-proof, the service is good and the golf links all that the most enthusiastic golfer could dream of. Take a run down a day, letting Manager Bldgood know if you will remain longer, and see if you are not benefitted.
